

Comms & Power Quality Services

Project: Communications and Power Quality Services

Client: CitiPower / Powercor Ltd

Location: Melbourne

Contract value: $700kpa

Duration: Ongoing - July 1998 to November 2013

DESCRIPTION

Citipower required the services of a contractor to provide a full suite of communication and power services.

SCOPE

Electrix were awarded the contract in 1998 provide the following services;

- HV feeder protection equipment maintenance and repair
- Supervisory cable network testing and maintenance
- Communications equipment service and repair
- SCADA communications network support
- DISCADA equipment installation and commissioning
- 24 hour emergency breakdown service
- Customer load monitoring
- Quality of supply measurement
- HV testing of distribution assets
- Installation and commissioning of HV Telecommunications Services
- Isolation of equipment in HV enclosures

Fault rectification on HV and LV switching apparatus used in the CitiPower distribution network is also a strong focus for the group.

VALUE TO CLIENT

The specialised skills provided by the Electrix team assist CitiPower to maintain high standards of network reliability and security for the critical Melbourne CBD and inner city areas.

CitiPower recently renewed the Communications and Power Quality contract with Electrix Pty Ltd for a further 3 year term following on the successful completion of contracts dating back to 1998.

